I understand that should I be offered and allocated an adapted campus room and there be an emergency where adapted accommodation is required for medical reasons I will be required to move to a non-adapted en suite room during my stay in Residences. If we request you to relocate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We will give you written notice of this and give you details of the similar alternative accommodation to which you will be moving. We will also notify you of the date on which you are to move to the similar alternative accommodation and we will give you reasonable notice of this date (taking into account the circumstances). • We will offer you a room with other students of your type of study in an en suite area. We will try to take into account any preferences that you have but availability of accommodation may be limited during the session. You will be required to sign a new Licence Agreement. I have read and understood the 2015/16 Residences Rules & Regulations booklet for University Residences (specifically section 12.13 and 14.8): http://www.brunel.ac.uk/services/accommodation/residence-regulations
